- The appearance of a new paper early in December 1949, to be known as Noticias, was amounced in a circular signed by "Oscar Vargas," the pseudonym of Arnoldo Ferreto Segura, Secretary Conoral of the Venguardia Popular of Costa Rica. Although no such statement would appear in the paper, Ferreto said that Noticias would be the legal organ of the VP. The circular was distributed to all provincial, cantenal, and district committees of the VP, which were directed to take immediate steps to push subscriptions for the new paper. The monthly rate for subscriptions to Moticias is to be one colon.
- Trabajo, another VP publication, will continue to be printed and circulated clandestinely twice a month pending the recovery of full legal status for the Party. Source reported that three thousand copies of Trabajo were now being nimeographed under the supervision of the Political Commission of the National Committee of the VP. The distribution was listed as follows:

No. of Copies

Province of San Jose	1,000
Province of Alajuela	400
Province of Heredia	300
Province of Cartago	250
Province of Limon	200
Province of Puntaronas	250
Province of Guenacaste	150
Province of Turrialba	1.00
